“360 Sky Lounge” starts service today

(Hong Kong, 12 December) Ngong Ping 360’s another newly designed cabin – the “360 Sky Lounge” – was officially launched into service today.

The Chairman of Hong Kong Tourism Board Mr James Tien, accompanied by Managing Director of Ngong Ping 360 Mr YT Li and the designer of “360 Sky Lounge” Mr Steve Leung, was invited to be the first guest to experience the glamorous “blue and green” journey in the sky on Ngong Ping 360.

The “360 Sky Lounge” is a champagne-gold-colored cable car cabin decorated with sparkling crystals and tailor-made furniture. Mr Li said, “This beautifully designed cabin provides a new and luxurious way for visitors to enjoy the stunning views of Lantau Island and Ngong Ping Village. It also serves as an excellent choice for celebrating special occasions and major milestones, and entertaining beloved ones or VIPs.”

“360 Sky Lounge’ will add colors and ambience to the meaningful occasions. We are honoured to play a role in sharing the invaluable memories with our guests,” said Mr Li.

The “360 Sky Lounge” can hold up to eight guests and can be rented as a private cabin for a round-trip price of HK$2,900.

Guests are advised to make advance reservation at Ngong Ping 360’s designated booking number: (852) 3666 0606, or check the attraction’s website at www.np360.com.hk.
