Secretary-General of World Tourism Organization visits Ngong Ping 360

(Hong Kong, 10 February 2010) The Secretary-General of United Nations World Tourism Organization (UNWTO) Taleb Rifai visited Ngong Ping 360 today.

Taleb Rifai and the Regional Representative for Asia and Pacific of UNWTO Xu Jing, accompanied by YT Li, Ngong Ping 360 Managing Director, experienced a 25-minute ride in a Crystal Cabin from Tung Chung to Ngong Ping. Taleb Rifai was impressed by the stunning scenery including the greenery of the North Lantau Country Park, the award-winning Hong Kong International Airport and the world's famous Giant Buddha.

During the visit, Taleb Rifai and Xu Jing were briefed on the key features of Ngong Ping 360 and the attractions in the vicinity. Taleb Rifai also toured the Chinese themed Ngong Ping Village with an array of shopping and dining delicacies, as well as visited the Po Lin Monastery and the Big Buddha.
