“Ngong Ping Harley Show” shared fun with motorbikes

(Hong Kong, 28 March 2010) Ngong Ping 360 was filled with excitement and flashing lights today (28 March) for the “Ngong Ping Harley Show”. Twenty-five unique Harley Davidson motorbikes were on display for the first time at Ngong Ping Village to the delight of visitors.

Jointly organized by Ngong Ping 360 and the Harley Owners Group Hong Kong Chapter, the “Ngong Ping Harley Show” gave visitors the chance to see the famous motorbikes up close. A series of entertaining performances and interactive games also brought fun and excitement to guests.

“The ‘Ngong Ping Harley Show’ is part of our continuous efforts to draw people to Lantau Island,” said Managing Director of Ngong Ping 360 Mr Y T Li. “The Island is also a perfect place for travelling on motorbikes and experiencing the stunning blue and green scenery.”

“Ngong Ping Village was packed today with visitors enjoying the games and motorbike performances,” continued Mr Li. “The feeling was electric and visitors had big smiles on their faces.”

Ms Chau Chuen-heung, Vice-Chairman of the Islands District Council, also attended the show. “It is our pleasure to showcase the beauty of Lantau Island to different groups of visitors,” she said. “There is so much to do, see and experience on a visit to Lantau.”

Chapter Director of the Harley Owners Group Hong Kong Chapter Mr Raymond Leung said, “Lantau Island is an ideal place for us to travel on our motorbikes and take in the wonderful scenery. It was also great to see so much interest in our Harley Davidson motorbikes, especially from the younger generation.”

Apart from appreciating the classic look of distinctive Harley Davidson motorbikes, visitors were also offered Harley souvenirs and the opportunity to take special photos to raise funds for the Outlying Islands Women's Association for charity programmes.
