“360 iDream” Wedding Package Unveiled at Ngong Ping 360

(Hong Kong, 25 May 2010) Ngong Ping 360 unveiled its new wedding package, “360 iDream”, in cooperation with Hong Kong’s renowned wedding planner, iDreamation Limited, at Tung Chung Cable Car Terminal today (25 May 2010).

Featuring a series of romantic and memorable wedding activities, Ngong Ping 360 aims to create a dreamy wedding experience for lovers with the unique “blue and green” backdrop of the cable car.

“There is no doubting Ngong Ping 360’s appeal as a romantic destination for those in love,” said Mr Y T Li, Managing Director of Ngong Ping 360. “We’ve taken the romance that already exists on the cable car, such as the spectacular scenery while travelling across the sky, and added special touches like unique wedding decorations and banquet services at Ngong Ping Village.”

“The blue water and green hills also make ideal backdrops for stunning wedding photos. We aim to offer wedding couples life-long sweetness and unforgettable memories on their big day,” added Mr Li.

The highlight of today’s event was the first-ever wedding gown fashion show at Tung Chung Cable Car Terminal. A new collection of wedding gowns created by famous designer Miss Noel Chu were showcased on the catwalk.

Introducing the design theme at the show, Miss Noel Chu said, “The collection presented today is unique for an outdoor environment. Its pure, active and refined style fits naturally with Ngong Ping 360’s refreshing ambience.”

Miss Toby Leung Ching-kei, popular actress and the founder of iDreamation, pointed out that Ngong Ping 360 is an excellent location for a wedding in Hong Kong.

“The stunning view of the mountains and the sea at Ngong Ping 360 speaks for itself,” she said. “There is no better place to make a solemn pledge of love until the end of time.”

Miss Toby Leung Ching-kei, together with popular artists cum models Mr Law Chung-him, Miss Natalie Tong, Miss Janet Chow and Miss Charmaine Xu were special guests at today's event to showcase the wedding gowns. Mr Y T Li also joined to present the “360 iDream” wedding package.
