Ngong Ping 360 Welcomes Local Talent for “360 Summer Show”

(Hong Kong, 23 June 2010) Ngong Ping 360 will collaborate with local performing groups to provide exciting and exclusive entertainment for the “360 Summer Show” at the popular cable car starting this Saturday (26 June).

For four consecutive weekends starting from 26 June, the “360 Summer Show” will showcase enjoyable performances by four Hong Kong groups which are supported by social enterprises or non-government organizations including the Hong Kong Rope Skipping Academy, the award-winning “Magic Kingdom” from the Chinese YMCA of Hong Kong, Teens Artist Workshop from the Society of Boys’ Centres and Techni Freestyle Soccer, the first Freestyle Soccer Team in Hong Kong.

Visitors to Ngong Ping 360 will be entertained each weekend by a different group of performers, witnessing systemic rope skipping, the world of magic, hip hop dancing and freestyle soccer skills over the four weekends. The performers will also play interactive games with visitors.

“The ‘360 Summer Show’ will bring visitors a series of vivid outdoor, fun and healthy activities to make visits to Ngong Ping 360 even more special,” said Managing Director of Ngong Ping 360 Mr Y T Li. “Visitors can enjoy the festive summertime atmosphere and see great local talent which is supported by the community.”

Special guests will attend the kick-off event for “360 Summer Show” on 26 June. A talented Hong Kong artist named Dik Tat (狄易達) and C AllStar, a young Cantopop band, will also perform at the event. FC Tai Po, a First Division football team in Hong Kong, will meet visitors at Ngong Ping Village to share the fun and joy and play football during the World Cup period.
