

Ocean Park Hong Kong, Ngong Ping 360, Hong Kong Wetland Park, and Madame Tussauds Hong Kong extend “Hong Kong Attractions Fun Deals” Admission Discount Programme

HONG KONG (June 24, 2010) Summer is fast approaching and four major Hong Kong attractions – Ocean Park Hong Kong, Ngong Ping 360, Hong Kong Wetland Park, and Madame Tussauds Hong Kong are celebrating summer festivities with locals and visitors by joining hands again to launch “Hong Kong Attractions Fun Deals” from July 1 to December 31, 2010.

Following the success of the six-month programme in early 2010, the attractions are extending the ticket admission promotional programme for another six months allowing guests who visit one of the four attractions during the period to enjoy a 10% admission discount when they present their ticket stubs at any of the other three attractions. The promotional period will be from July 1 to December 31, 2010, while the redemption period for valid tickets from the four attractions will be extended to January 31, 2011.

The mascots of the attractions, Whiskers from Ocean Park Hong Kong, Doofoos from Ngong Ping 360 and Black-faced Spoonbill from Hong Kong Wetland Park, invite guests to celebrate summer and seasonal festivities at the four attractions, including Madame Tussauds Hong Kong, with the extension of the “Hong Kong Attractions Fun Deals” from July 1 to December 31, 2010.

Whiskers from Ocean Park Hong Kong, Black-faced Spoonbill from Hong Kong Wetland Park and Doofoos from Ngong Ping 360 are the first to enjoy the summer festivities at Madame Tussauds Hong Kong, trying their football skills with C Ronaldo's wax likeness, which will be at Madame Tussauds Hong Kong until October 17, 2010.

“Hong Kong Attractions Fun Deals” has been very well received in the first half of 2010 and over 10,000 guests have benefited from the offer.

Hong Kong has been a popular destination for regional visitors, especially with a wide choice of entertainment and themed attractions. Tourists can now visit Ocean Park, Ngong Ping 360, Hong Kong Wetland Park, and Madame Tussauds Hong Kong at special prices to experience the attractions' latest summer and seasonal activities so they enjoy their holidays in Hong Kong to the fullest.

About Ocean Park

Ocean Park is Hong Kong's unique homegrown theme park with a heritage of delivering family fun and fond memories. Since its opening in January 1977 as a non-profit organization, Ocean Park has developed itself to be a world-class attraction connecting people with nature, and it is recognized for its animal husbandry, research and relationship with the community. Over 95 million people have visited Hong Kong's premier park since its inception, and Ocean Park has remained committed to offering adults and children experiences that blend entertainment with education and conservation. Part of the proceeds from Ocean Park admission tickets and some retail items will go to Ocean Park Conservation Foundation, Hong Kong to support its wildlife conservation projects.

About Ngong Ping 360

Ngong Ping 360, Hong Kong's premier world-class tourist attraction, begins with a 25-minute visually spectacular 5.7 km cable car journey with stunning panoramic views of Tung Chung Bay, Hong Kong International Airport, South China Sea and North Lantau Country Park.

The Tian Tan Buddha Statue and Po Lin Monastery are just within walking distance from our culturally themed Ngong Ping Village which is set right next to the Ngong Ping Terminal, featuring major themed attractions, "Walking with Buddha" and "Monkey's Tale Theatre", offering guests a variety of shopping, dining and entertainment experiences.

About Hong Kong Wetland Park

The Hong Kong Wetland Park is a world-class eco-tourism facility that provides local visitors and tourists with an extraordinary experience on the nature of Hong Kong. The Park demonstrates the biodiversity of Hong Kong's wetland ecosystem and highlights the need to conserve them.

The Park encompasses both educational and recreational elements, with the exhibition galleries of the "Wetland Interactive World" featuring the importance of wetlands on biodiversity and conservation; and a 60-hectare wetland reserve where visitors can appreciate the beauty of nature and explore her amazing wildlife. Other facilities include Stream Walk, Succession Walk, Mangrove Boardwalk and three Bird Hides situated near fish pond, mudflat and riverside where visitors may explore different wildlife including the globally endangered black-faced spoonbill. The Park also organises various public activities such as thematic exhibitions, film shows, guided tours and workshops.

About Madame Tussauds Hong Kong

Madame Tussauds Hong Kong is a unique celebrity-inspired attraction that connects guests with famous people, famous events and famous times. Featuring six themed areas, Madame Tussauds Hong Kong provides guests with the opportunity to meet their idols and do the things that famous people do!

The attraction features over 100 local and international celebrity wax figures with exciting audiovisual effects and interactive experiences to create truly magical moments for all guests.

Originally opened in August 2000, Madame Tussauds Hong Kong is the first permanent Madame Tussauds in Asia and is one of nine Madame Tussauds that are located in London, New York, Las Vegas, Amsterdam, Shanghai, Washington D.C., Berlin and Hollywood.
