(Hong Kong, 16 July 2010) Shaolin Kung Fu masters will be back at Ngong Ping 360 this summer, thrilling visitors with their spectacular moves.

The “Ngong Ping Shaolin Showcase” will take place from 24 July to 15 August 2010 in Ngong Ping Village. Fifteen Shaolin Kung Fu masters will showcase their authentic martial arts skills, which includes use of monkey sticks, spears and fists, in a series of exciting demonstrations. A number of interactive workshops will also be held, giving visitors the opportunity to experience Chinese Kung Fu first-hand and learn the Shaolin body-healing exercises from the Kung Fu masters.

“Ngong Ping Shaolin Showcase” will kick off with a special event to be staged on 28 July 2010 (Wednesday) in Ngong Ping Village. Special guests at the kick-off event will include Mr. Y T Li, Managing Director of Ngong Ping 360, Mr. Dennis To 杜宇航 and Miss Rose Chan 陳嘉桓, some of the stars in the recently-released Kung Fu movie “The Legend is Born – Ip Man” (葉問前傳).

“We are delighted to bring back the popular Kung Fu performances for our guests this summer. The outdoor “blue and green” environment and the culturally-themed Ngong Ping Village present a perfect and unique stage for the Shaolin Kung Fu demonstrations to be enjoyed by visitors from all over the world,” said Mr Y T Li, Managing Director of Ngong Ping 360.

“In addition to the spectacular performances, visitors will also have the exclusive opportunity to learn Kung Fu and body-healing exercises from the Shaolin masters. With the Shaolin Showcase, we hope that visitors can bring home more unforgettable memories of Hong Kong, as well as good health in future,” added Mr Li.

During the “Ngong Ping Shaolin Showcase” period, two Kung Fu performances will be held each weekday and four performances on weekends. The Interactive workshops will be held at 2pm on weekdays in Ngong Ping Village and at 12:30pm and 2:30pm on weekends.
