Ngong Ping 360 Introduces “Family Craft Workshop” from August to December

(Hong Kong, 19 August 2010) Ngong Ping 360 is encouraging families with young children to visit Ngong Ping 360 with the launch of a special series of art and craft workshops on selected weekends and public holidays from 21 August to 12 December.

The “Family Craft Workshop” is being organised for the first time by Ngong Ping 360 over a four-month period to encourage parents to spend time together with their kids in fun-filled activities amid the beautiful ‘blue and green’ environment at Ngong Ping 360.

During the period, free interactive art and craft workshops will be staged in Ngong Ping Village, allowing experienced local crafters to demonstrate how to make themed handicrafts.

“Ngong Ping 360 is already an excellent destination for families, and the ‘Family Craft Workshop’ makes it that much better,” said Mr Y T Li, Managing Director of Ngong Ping 360. “Apart from enjoying a relaxing day out, family groups can spend valuable time bonding and doing arts and crafts with their loved ones.”

Starting this weekend (21 and 22 August), the “Family Craft Workshop” will be held on selected weekends and on public holidays until 12 December. Professional crafters will meet guests in Ngong Ping Village to showcase their art and craft skills and help guests create their own handicrafts.

Different workshops will feature different themes, including stone painting, recycled paper-making demonstration and paper cutting. In addition, handicrafts with a festival theme will highlight special holidays, such as paper lantern making during Mid-Autumn Festival and Christmas card colouring during the Christmas holidays.

More details about the "Family Craft Workshop" and the Ngong Ping 360 can be obtained through Ngong Ping 360's Hotline at 3666 0606 or its website at www.np360.com.hk.
