

PR002/2011

Ngong Ping 360 welcomes the Year of Rabbit with festive promotions

(Hong Kong, 21 January 2011) Ngong Ping 360 will present a series of promotions, entertaining programmes and fun-filled activities for celebrating the arrival of the Year of the Rabbit.

Visitors will also find that Ngong Ping 360 is one of the most auspicious places in Hong Kong for ensuring good fortune and prosperity in the year ahead. In addition to the rich and colourful performances and activities, they will be able to make New Year wishes at a new themed cable car and the Wishing Shrine in Ngong Ping Village.

Unlimited fun with the 360 Year of the Rabbit Pass

To celebrate the New Year, Ngong Ping 360 will launch the "360 Year of The Rabbit Pass", which gives visitors the chance to take unlimited rides in a Standard Cabin throughout the Year of the Rabbit (3 February 2011 to 22 January 2012).

For the special price of HK$360—less than $1 a day—the "360 Year of the Rabbit Pass" will go on sale from 3 to 17 February 2011 at the Tung Chung Cable Car Terminal.

Mr Y T Li, Managing Director of Ngong Ping 360, said, "Our '360 Year of The Rabbit Pass' is designed to encourage repeat visits to Ngong Ping 360, one of Hong Kong's most popular tourist attractions. For less than $1 a day, it's a fantastic value for enjoying a pleasant day-out with families and friends."

A ride to fortune and prosperity

As part of the Chinese New Year festivities at Ngong Ping Village, visitors can make a wish at the Wealth Wishing Cable Car for good luck and wealth. Po Lin Monastery and the Big Buddha are just steps away, where prayers for the year to come can be made.

"Our Wealth Wishing Cable Car provides a unique and enjoyable cable car ride as well as the opportunity to wish for wealth, happiness and good fortune. I'm sure our guests will find it an unforgettable experience," Mr Li added.

Giant Chinese lion a star performer

The Chinese lion dance at Ngong Ping 360 will be staged by a giant lion carried by a team of 12 performers through the village each day during the performance period. Visitors will be able to get up close and touch the lion to receive luck from this remarkable creature of Chinese legend.

Festive performances to delight one and all

During the Chinese New Year period, an array of celebrations and traditions will be held at Ngong Ping 360 to enhance the vitality and unique ambience of the festive occasion. Entertainment will include magic shows, classical Chinese music performances, stunning acrobatic shows and greetings by the God of Fortune.

For details on service arrangements and the promotions during the Chinese New Year period, visitors can call the Ngong Ping 360 Hotline at 3666 0606 or visit our website: www.np360.com.hk.

- End -

Ngong Ping 360's Chinese New Year Promotions and Performances
February 2011

| Programme | Date & Time |
|---|--|
| 360 Year of The Rabbit Pass | Purchase period: 3 to 17 February 2011 Effective period: 3 February 2011 to 22 January 2012 |
| Wealth Wishing Cable Car | 14 January to 20 February 2011 |
| Giant Chinese Lion Parade | 3 to 6 February 211 - 1:30pm - 2:30pm - 3:30pm |
| Chinese New Year celebrations – Classical Chinese music performances – Magic shows – Acrobatic shows | 3 to 6 February 2011 and 12 to 13 February 2011 |
| Greetings by the God of Fortune Ngong Ping 360 Monkey Mascots | 3 to 13 February 2011 |
| Lion Dance Performance | 8 February 2011 |

Photos

1. Make a wish! The themed Wealth Wishing Cable Car at Ngong Ping Village brings good fortune and prosperity in the Year of the Rabbit.

2. Fun-filled celebrations and entertainment, highlighted by the Giant Chinese Lion Parade, are all part of the festivities at Ngong Ping 360.

