

PR022/2011

Ngong Ping 360 with Celebrity Wong Cho-lam
To Host a Memorable Caring “Bubbloo” Fun Day for Children from Local Charity

(Hong Kong, 29 October 2010) About 100 participants from low income families enjoyed the uniquely fun and creative “Ngong Ping 360 Bubbloo Carnival” during the charity outing at the tourist attraction today.

Renowned celebrity Mr Wong Cho-lam and Ngong Ping 360 Managing Director Mr Wilson Shao, special guests of the “Ngong Ping 360 Bubbloo Charity Fun Day”, put their heartfelt support in action by acting as celebrity tour guides. They led about 100 participants from Caritas Pre-school Education & Child Care Service to enjoy the spectacular cable car ride and the fascinating bubble art performance at Ngong Ping 360.

Ngong Ping 360 Managing Director Mr Wilson Shao said, “As a key tourist attraction in Hong Kong, Ngong Ping 360 cares about the needy in the community and the well-being of children. We are delighted to host this spectacular bubble journey together with Cho-lam for the families from Caritas Pre-school Education & Child Care. We aim to bring fun and memorable experiences to our guests and hope they will enjoy the splendid “blue and green” natural environment along the cable car journey, as well as having great fun at our Bubbloo Carnival.”

Celebrity Mr Wong Cho-lam, once a TV host for children programmes, brought tremendous laughter and had a great fun time with the families during the charity visit, “I am very pleased to be the special tour guide for the “Ngong Ping 360 Bubbloo Charity Fun Day”, contributing to the community in a meaningful way. There are many beautiful places in Hong Kong, and Ngong Ping 360 is one of them. Through this Bubbloo Carnival, families can immerse themselves in this bubble journey, seeing beautiful sceneries as well as giving them hope for a bright future.”

At the “Ngong Ping 360 Bubbloo Charity Fun Day”, Wong Cho-lam together with Ngong Ping 360 Managing Director Wilson Shao, going hands in hands with the 100 children and families to appreciate the amazing bubble performance. The Czech Republic world records holding bubble artist Matej Kodes enticed the group with glittering bubble acts. Cho-lam and one of the children even joined Matej on stage to play around with the bubbles as if they were playing ping pong. The performance came to an end with loud cheers and endless applause when Matej covered both Cho-lam and a child with a gigantic bubble. Led by Wong Cho-lam, the group then learnt bubble tricks at the interactive workshop, followed by touring Ngong Ping Village and had a great time at the fun-filled Bubbloo-themed game booths. Both children and their families had a wonderful day out and happy memories at the “Ngong Ping 360 Bubbloo Charity Fun Day”.

- End -

Photo Cutlines:

1. Ngong Ping 360 Managing Director Mr Wilson Shao (1st from left) and renowned celebrity Mr Wong Cho-lam (2nd from left) led children from low income families to kick off the “Ngong Ping 360 Bubbloo Charity Fun Day”.

2. More than 100 participants of “Ngong Ping 360 Bubbloo Charity Fun Day” taking group photos at Ngong Ping Village.

3. Mr Wong Cho-lam and a kid joined the performance by Czech Republic bubble artist Matej Kodes, receiving endless applause from the floor.

4. Mr Wong Cho-lam and the children learnt bubble tricks at the interactive workshop from world records-holding bubble artist Matej Kodes.

