

PR027/2011 (V. 4)

Ngong Ping 360 Extends Service Hours and Joyful Promotions in the New Year

(Hong Kong, 20 January 2012) To celebrate the Year of Dragon, Ngong Ping 360 will start its service early during the first week of Chinese New Year with dragon-themed festive entertainment and decoration.

Extended Service Hours

From 21 to 29 January 2012, the tourist attraction will open from 9:00am to 6:30pm, one hour earlier on weekdays during the period. Guests will enjoy more flexibility in planning their visits to Ngong Ping 360 and enjoy the memorable journey on the cable car and other tourist attractions on Lantau, signifying fortune and a pleasant start in the New Year.

Celebrate the Year of Dragon with Ngong Ping 360 Hao's Family

To celebrate the Year of the Dragon, Ngong Ping 360 Hao's Family will be dressed in Dragon themed Chinese traditional costume, greeting guests with joy and happiness all year round.

"360 Year of the Dragon Pass" brings joyful cable car journeys

To celebrate the Year of the Dragon, Ngong Ping 360 is pleased to present the "360 Year of the Dragon Pass", offering guests unlimited rides in a Standard Cabin (23 January 2012 to 9 February 2013). Guests can purchase the "360 Year of the Dragon Pass" at an early bird price of HK$360 at the Tung Chung Cable Car Terminal and via Ngong Ping 360 official website: www.np360.com.hk from now till 22 January. The "360 Year of the Dragon Pass" will be sold at HK$390 from 23 January to 6 February, in the first half month of the Lunar New Year.

Golden Dragon greets guests with health and prosperity

Ngong Ping 360 is using "Dragon" as the main theme for this Lunar New Year's festive decoration. A uniquely designed "Golden Dragon Palace" is erected in the Ngong Ping Village with a 3D golden dragon head as the exterior design. Inside the "Golden Dragon Palace", guests can sit on the throne and be the "Chinese Emperor/Empress", capturing good health and prosperity, as well as a great place for a magnificent photo moment. A "Golden Dragon Ball" has also been put up in the Village for guests to spin around, bringing good luck and happiness in the New Year.

Celebration in Ngong Ping Village brings festive fun to everyone

Ngong Ping 360 offers a complete Chinese New Year experience with a series of traditional Chinese activities and entertainments, including Golden Dragon Parade and Chinese Lion Dance on designated dates. The attraction has also invited the champion lion dance performing team "Yun Fook Tong Chinese Martial Arts Dragon & Lion Dance Association" at the "Luminous Dragon Dance & Lion Dance Championship 2012", to perform their winning show exclusively at Ngong Ping 360 on 28 January. The team will also perform other spectacular lion dance stunts during the performance. God of Fortune will also wish everyone a good beginning to the Year of the Dragon at the tourist attraction, turning Ngong Ping 360 into a land of fortune.

For details on the promotion during the Lunar New Year period, please visit our website at www.np360.com.hk, or contact our Customer Service Hotline at (852) 3666 0606.

- End -

Photo Cutlines:

1. Guests can celebrate the Year of the Dragon with Ngong Ping 360 Hao's Family dressed in Dragon themed Chinese traditional costume.

Hao's Family Mama, Papa: $100 each
Hao's Family NN, PP: $90 each

2. 3D "Golden Dragon Palace" in Ngong Ping Village. Guests can spin the "Golden Dragon Ball" and dress up as Chinese Emperor/Empress, making New Year's wish, and bringing home with good luck and happiness.

3. Ngong Ping 360 has launched the "360 Year of the Dragon Pass", giving guests a chance to take unlimited rides in a Standard Cabin throughout the year.

