

NGONG PING 360

Ngong Ping Village: Fact Sheet

- Overview Ngong Ping Village has been designed to reflect and maintain the cultural and spiritual integrity of the Ngong Ping area. It incorporates two major themed attractions: Walking with Buddha and Monkey's Tale Theatre.
- Location Ngong Ping Plateau on Lantau Island, Hong Kong. Adjacent to Ngong Ngong Ping Cable Car Terminal and within a five minute walk of the Tian Tan Buddha Statue.
- Main Attractions
- Walking with Buddha is an entertaining, multimedia attraction exploring and explaining the life of Siddhartha Gautama [the man who became Buddha] and his path to enlightenment. The Walking with Buddha attraction has also been designed to provide visitors with a unique Bodhi Tree experience in the courtyard.
- Monkey's Tale Theatre presents a light-hearted, multimedia Jataka story which is guaranteed to inform and entertain people of all ages. Designed to engage all of its visitors' senses, the 'Monkey's Tale' parable is presented in a fun, engaging, immersive and entertaining environment.
- Food and Beverage options are diverse at Ngong Ping Village, catering for all tastes, desires and budgets. The Village offers its guests the choice of a traditional Chinese or Western restaurant, as well as an array of casual dining and fast food outlets.
- The Country Market offers an array of quality shops, displaying themed souvenirs set against a backdrop of traditional Chinese-style streetscapes and landscaping.

###