Adorable Horses Bring "Five Blessings" for the New Year Fortune Wheel Spins Luck, Health, and Wealth

The large-scale thematic installation "Golden Steed Welcomes the Chinese New Year" will be located at the Stupa Square of Ngong Ping Village. The five horses on the installation will all be adorned in Chinese New Year styles, symbolizing "Five Blessings" - good fortune, prosperity, health, longevity and happiness. Three horses that sit on the installation will deliver New Year blessing messages, while a small horse hides in another horse's mane. Don't forget to look up and greet the inflatable horse standing on top of the installation to receive blessings from above!

Master Mak Ling Ling says that horses symbolize progress, success and strength, while the elevated platform design at the center of the installation aligns with the New Year's theme of "rising step by step". The designs allow the horses' energy to radiate in all directions, attracting popularity and wealth!

Besides, Ngong Ping Village will feature two Chinese New Year blessing photo spots. The "Success at the Gallop Fortune Wheel Photo Spot" located next to the Village archway is decorated with peach blossoms, fortune sticks and gold ingots, symbolizing luck, health, and wealth. Guests can spin the fortune wheel in the middle to receive blessings in wealth, career and love, multiplying their good fortune.

At the "Golden Lucky Bag Celebrates the Chinese New Year" Giant Lucky Bag next to the Bodhi Tree, guests can step into a giant blessing bag with an adorable horse and filled with gold ingots for photos, symbolizing "being embraced by wealth and blessings with a house full of gold and silver" in the coming year! Master Mak Ling Ling notes that both installations are meaningfully arranged to gather abundant blessings and good fortune, allowing people to feel the vibrant positive energy!

Master Mak Ling Ling Blesses Ngong Ping on an Auspicious Day Doubling the Blessings with Lucky Charms

Master Mak Ling Ling will visit Ngong Ping Village at 11am on 21 February to distribute lucky charms and chocolate coins to guests in front of the Pavilion at Ngong Ping Village, while offering New Year blessings to all! Master Mak notes that Ngong Ping Village has an especially good New Year atmosphere with strong positive energy. Its high elevation and the close proximity to the Big Buddha helps enhance positive energy. She invites everyone to meet her at Ngong Ping Village during Chinese New Year!

Lion Dance Performances Welcome the Chinese New Year God of Fortune Meet-and-Greet

Ngong Ping 360 has invited a professional lion dance troupe to perform at 12:30 pm and 3:30 pm daily from 17 to 22 February in front of the Pavilion, adding festive colors to Ngong Ping Village! On 21 February, the first lion dance performance will be held earlier at 11 am.
