(Hong Kong – 22 September 2023) To celebrate the Mid-Autumn Festival, Ngong Ping 360 will host the “Ngong Ping 360 Lantern Festival” from 23 September to 8 October. During the festival, Ngong Ping Village will be adorned with over a thousand hand-painted lanterns, transforming it into the perfect place to experience the traditions of the Mid-Autumn Festival. Some of the lanterns have been created by primary and secondary school students and ethnic minority groups. Their creative and colourful designs beautifully embellish Ngong Ping Village, bringing vitality to the main streets and pavilions!

Joining hands to create lanterns that light up the sky

The 360 Caring Team, alongside the Tung Chung Integrated Services Centre and TOUCH – Support Service Centre for Ethnic Minorities by the Neighbourhood Advice-Action Council, Ching Chung Hau Po Woon Primary School, CCC Tai O Primary School and Buddhist Fat Ho Memorial College, unleashed students' creativity for the Mid-Autumn Festival by collaboratively painting unique lanterns. The lanterns are on display in Ngong Ping Village, where they light up the village with creativity and love.

Guests can capture heart-warming moments under the sea of colourful hand-painted lanterns lining the main street of Ngong Ping Village. Guests who purchase on-day round-trip cable car tickets will also receive a lantern riddle game card. If guests answer a designated number of riddles correctly, they will have the opportunity to join a lucky draw and win exciting prizes!

Mid-Autumn Festival Special: Hand-painted Lantern Workshop

In addition to enjoying the sea of lanterns and participating in the lantern riddle game, guests can join a “Hand-painted Lantern Workshop”; an activity not to be missed!

During the workshop, guests can unleash their creativity at the Ngong Ping Village Pavilion, where instructors will teach them lantern-painting techniques. Guests can take their own uniquely designed lantern artwork back home for a truly festive experience!

About Ngong Ping 360

As a major tourist attraction located on Lantau Island in Hong Kong, Ngong Ping 360 offers guests an exciting and unique natural and cultural experience. The Ngong Ping Cable Car stretches 5.7 km from Tung Chung to Ngong Ping and is the longest bicable cable car system in Asia. It offers a visually spectacular 25-minute journey with panoramic views of the flora and fauna of North Lantau Country Park, Tung Chung Bay, the Hong Kong–Zhuhai–Macao Bridge and Hong Kong International Airport.

In 2022, Ngong Ping 360 launched “Crystal+”, a new type of cabin developed in France and Italy. All sides and the bottom of the “Crystal+” cabin are made of fully transparent tempered glass, providing our guests with 80% visibility and an unobstructed 360° panoramic view of Lantau Island to create an extraordinary travel experience.
